Draft A and C. is put up. As regards the substitution of the words "Mily Secretary to H. H. the Maharaja" for "Mily Asst" wherever they occur, attention is respectfully invited to the late Dewan's order dt: 26-7-11. The order says that "the designation "Military Asst" need not be changed to "Mily Secy to H. H. the Maharaja" as the present is only a temporary arrangement and the latter terms may be misunderstood" (Vide page 30 of the office notes in G.F. No. 527 of 1910). The draft substituting "Mily Secy" for "Mily Asst" is however submitted as per order.

Despatch the Military Asst was changed to the replaced by the designation "Mily Secy" when the 4th Edn was being issued, & the then Dewan wanted to know the reasons why the change had been effected & whether anything should be done now? Draft has been put up. As regards the last paragraph, the Dewan's order is "as at present" so A & C slip is therefore necessary

No (2) of the abovementioned duties was assigned to him. No (1) was assigned to the General Secy. The office of the Mily Asst has thus by bifurcation ceased to exist and the "Mily Secy" does not completely take the place of the "Mily Asst". The late Deewan has said that this bifurcation is only temporary. In these circs it appears that the issue of the corrigendum may be deferred.

12 It does not look well to have in the M.S.R. a designation which has ceased to exist viz. "Military Asst". VB will A/S Mr. go over the Draft Compendium again & see if any part of it is unreasonable or against existing practice i.e. whether we are substituting "Military Secy" for "Military Asst" in any place whether that is not apparently the intention of Govt. If there is no such point in the Draft compendium I think it may issue.

14 The draft corrigendum is all right and may issue. The only point which requires a little consideration is with refee to the amendment proposed to art: 380 M.S.R. Herein also, the "Mily Asst" may well be substituted by "Mily Secy" though the latter is not in charge of the Cavalry and the Barr Bree as he with his varied experience in Military matters will be the most suitable person on the committee referred to in the art:

Submitted to His Highness.

19 In certain articles of the Mysore Service Regulations, the term "Military Assistant" is used. This appointment has now been replaced by that of the Military Secretary to His Highness. The Financial Secretary has therefore proposed in the accompanying corrigendum to the Mysore Service Regulations to substitute the term "Military Secretary to His Highness" for "Military Assistant" wherever the latter occurs.
